

Sinclair Broadcast Group is a great example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself. They use the public airwaves free of charge, and because they are allowed to, they are bound to serve the public interest. They should rethink airing the one-sided "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal" just before the election. If they decide to do that anyway, they should then shortly afterwards air a pro-Kerry program such as "Going Upriver," and the latter program should be in as good a time slot as the former.

Stations that electioneer will deserve what they get. I think their license renewal should rest in the balance here.
